WHITE WINES

RIESLING

Riesling is an aromatic grape variety displaying flowery, almost perfumed, aromas as well as high acidity.

SAUVIGNON BLANC

The best wines made using Sauvignon Blanc hail from the Loire Valley and Marlborough, New Zealand. Typical character of fresh green fruits, particularly gooseberry and citrus.

CHARDONNAY

Oaked – rich, buttery wines with aromas and flavours of peach, apple and pineapple. Un-oaked - lighter, delicate flavors which can be matched with a fairly wide variety of dishes.

PINOT GRIGIO/PINOT GRIS

Two names for the same grape, yet two completely different wines. The immensely popular Pinot Grigio is dry and crisp with pear, green apple and floral aromas. Pinot Gris wines are more fuller bodied, richer and spicier.

VIOGNIER

Aromatic and perfumed. Typical flavours are peach, mango and honeysuckle. Viognier is a great alternative to a bold Chardonnay.

ALBARINO

Similar to Viognier, the light and refreshing style, with a hint of sweetness, provides a refreshing alternative to Chardonnay. Delicate peachy aromas with hints of spice, herbs and traces of sweet fruits, a fresh and crisp palate rounded by hints of honey, peaches and stone fruits

RED WINES

PINOT NOIR

Light in colour and tannin. Aroma and flavours of red berry fruits.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Cabernet Sauvignon is famed for its success in Bordeaux, and has a distinctive blackcurrant character and firm structure.

SYRAH/SHIRAZ

Syrah, or shiraz, depending on where you are in the world, is incredibly robust, producing rich, spicy wines.

MERLOT

Merlot's soft plummy fruit character is often used to soften Cabernet Sauvignon in red blends, and is also a delicious single varietal wine.

TEMPRANILLO

Full of strawberry, spice and vanilla. Tempranillo is a native Spanish grape variety, but is more famed for its use in the Rioja and Ribera del Duero regions.

MALBEC

Despite having French roots in Bordeaux, Malbec is now most famous in Mendoza in Argentina, where it produces deep, full bodied wines.
